

Information for potential chaperones 2017

Thank you for expressing interest in chaperoning the Arlington-Aachen high school exchange for July 2017. After the application deadline of February 20, 2016 we will determine how many chaperones we need.

The chaperones accompany and supervise the Arlington high school students traveling to Aachen. Travel and expenses are covered. The position is non-paid. Chaperones also take part in the student selection process, orientation, and social activities before departure.

To apply please send a copy of your resume to aachenarlingtonexchange@gmail.com. Also include a short statement of your interest in accompanying this trip and why you would be a good chaperone.

If you are selected you will then fill out a chaperone expectation agreement with details of responsibilities. This form is available on the ASCA website:

The students drawn to this cultural exchange are mature and highly motivated. Many of you know Yorktown High School's Assistant Principal William Lomax who chaperoned summer of 2013. Williamsburg Middle School teacher Diane Myers was a chaperone summer 2014, and HB teacher Cecilia Allen chaperoned in 2015, Anja-Mueller-Gruenkemeir and Silke Bastian chaperoned in 2016.
